

I believe that ownership consolidation of the primary media avenues will be a detriment to our democracy which is already lacking in news and viewpoints which might be considered alternative to what is now being predominantly aired.

Thank You.